Dickie B. RCM

Happy holidays to you all. Hope you all you are all in the season and ready to celebrate some type of food festival of good treats and some type of spiritual celebration. Hope you are all boosting the economy recirculating money, and hope you all have a happy holiday.

Not much to report here since we just met.

I have visited a few of the groups in our area and notice that a lot of them could use support. I have been announcing in meetings elections and the need for new people.

Elections this month. Hope your members of your groups and getting involved and being of service.

Hope to see new faces
